FOREWORD

The County Emergency Operations Plan (EOP) outlines how the County Government complies with and implements the requirement of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, Title 35, Health and Safety, Emergency Management Services Code to protect the lives and property of the citizens of the county. The county EOP serves as a bridge between the Local Municipal Emergency Operations Plans and the Pennsylvania State Emergency Operations Plan (SEOP).

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

General: This plan prescribes emergency response coordination guidelines for Centre County. This plan serves as an emergency management link between local municipalities and state government while incorporating the federal concepts of the National Response Framework (NRF.)

All emergency response activities within the county will utilize the National Incident Management System (NIMS). This includes prescribed incident command structures used by local emergency responders at the scene of emergencies, and an Emergency Support Function (ESF) structure at the county Emergency Operations Center (EOC).

This plan employs a functional, all-hazards approach to coordinate the assistance that the county is likely to need or provide by defining fifteen (15) ESFs. These functions are basically the same as those at the state and federal levels.

Organization: The plan is divided into four volumes, all published separately. This allows users to separate those portions that may contain personal information or information that needs to be kept confidential (the items in Volume III).

Volume I contains:

- The Basic Plan which describes guidelines and principles for coordinating emergencies and/or disasters throughout the county. It contains overarching structures and assigns responsibilities to various organizations in the county.
- Appendices that provide additional information (authority and references, terms and definitions, maps, etc.) that may be helpful.

Volume II contains: ESF Annexes that describe the fifteen emergency support functions and how they may be accomplished.

Volume III contains:

- Functional Checklists that provide suggested tasks for each of the principal positions in the county EOC, as well as any resource lists that may be needed to expedite obtaining assistance.

I. PURPOSE and SCOPE

- A. Purpose: This plan is to prescribe those activities to be taken by County government and officials to coordinate emergency response activities, provide support to their citizens, and interface with the private sector, political subdivisions and the Commonwealth government for the purpose of protecting lives and property in the event of a natural or human-caused event or disaster. This plan serves to satisfy the requirements of the Pennsylvania Emergency Management Services Code. This plan is designed as an “All-Hazards” plan. Its organization into Emergency Support Functions allows it to be used for disasters and emergencies of all types.
- B. Scope: The plan will apply to all emergencies and disasters that occur within the geographic boundaries of the County and require county-level response or coordination. It also applies to coordination and use of county emergency response assets for response to emergencies in other counties and jurisdictions. The plan is applicable to all assets of county government and supporting emergency response organizations within the county.

II. SITUATION AND ASSUMPTIONS

A. Situation

1. County Location and Description: Centre County is located in the central portion of Pennsylvania and encompasses a land area of 1,115 square miles. According to the Census of the United States, the 2012 population of the county was 155,171. Bellefonte, the county seat, is located in the center portion of the county. Approximately 807 square miles (73 percent) of the county is forest, 169 square miles (15 percent) is agriculture, 41 square miles (4 percent) is considered rural and 95 square miles (8 percent) is considered urban. There are 589 miles of state and federal highways and 875 miles of secondary and municipal roads in the county. The County is comprised of 35 local municipalities (six of which have joined as a Centre Region Council of Governments) and has five School Districts.
2. County Capabilities and Support:
 - a. The County 9-1-1 Center serves as an emergency communications dispatch center for Centre County.
 - b. Penn State University also operates a communications and dispatch center for emergency services on University property..
 - c. Mutual Aid and Support: The County opts to utilize The Pennsylvania Intrastate Mutual Aid System (PIMAS), Act 93 of 2008, which encompasses intra-state mutual aid. The County is also a member of the South Central Mountains Regional Task Force.

3. County Hazard Vulnerability: The County is subject to a variety of hazards. According to the County Hazard Vulnerability Analysis (HVA) the most likely and damaging of these are:
 - a. Floods
 - b. Winter Storms

B. Assumptions:

1. A major disaster or emergency (including any terrorism event) may cause numerous fatalities and injuries, property loss, and disruption of normal life-support systems; and will have an impact on the regional economic, physical, and social infrastructures.
2. The extent of casualties and damage will depend on factors such as the time of occurrence, severity of impact, weather conditions, population density, building construction, and the possibility of cascading events such as fires, explosions, structural collapse, contamination issues, and loss of critical infrastructure.
3. A major disaster or emergency will overwhelm the capabilities of the local municipal governments along with their emergency response agencies.
4. The county will coordinate and support the activities of multiple political subdivisions in accordance with the provisions of the Pennsylvania Emergency Management Services Code. The County Emergency Management Agency (EMA) may need to respond on short notice to provide timely and effective assistance.
5. Using a tiered response system, resources and capabilities of the regional task force may be requested by the county to provide additional coordination and support if available.
6. Upon a determination that resource requests exceed or may exceed locally available resources, the county may request Commonwealth assistance through the Pennsylvania Emergency Management Agency (PEMA).
7. The occurrence of a major disaster or emergency may result in the declaration of a disaster emergency by the Governor. Depending upon the severity of the event, the Governor may request a Declaration of Emergency or Major Disaster from the President of the United States, or a declaration of Economic Emergency from the administrator of the Small Business Administration.

8. The Pennsylvania Intrastate Mutual Aid System (PIMAS) should make aid available to the county and all of its political subdivisions that have not opted out of the system.
9. Should the county face a catastrophic disaster wherein the majority of the ESFs would need to be activated (Katrina type event), assistance may be needed from neighboring counties or state to staff the county EOC for 24/7 operations.

III. CONCEPT OF OPERATIONS

A. General:

1. NIMS: All emergency response within the county will follow the National Incident Management System (NIMS) that has been specified by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. This includes:
 - a. The designation of an Incident Commander, and, if necessary, an Incident Management Structure;
 - b. the use of resource definitions specified by NIMS; and
 - c. communication and planning protocols defined in NIMS.
2. Phasing: All disasters start at the local level. Responses start there as well, and escalate with the scope of the incident.
 - a. Initial response to disasters and emergencies (including terrorism related incidents) is normally handled by local responders, dispatched by county 9-1-1.
 - b. If it appears that the incident will grow beyond the capabilities of an affected municipality, or if more than one local municipality is affected, the county EMA will assist with coordination of the efforts.
 - c. If local resources become overwhelmed, the county EMA will usually activate the County Emergency Operations Center (EOC) to provide supplemental assistance and coordination.
 - d. If county resources are not adequate, the county EMA may turn to other counties, Regional Task Forces and/or the state for assistance.

B. Intergovernmental Assistance: In addition to the Pennsylvania Intrastate Mutual Aid System (PIMAS), the County Emergency Management Coordinator (EMC) and elected officials may develop agreements with nearby counties as well as incorporating support from state government. Non-routine requests for out-of-county support will be processed through the County EOC or EMA office.

1. The South Central Mountains Regional Task Force may provide materials and equipment as well as assistance in the form of specialized teams as available.
2. Adjacent Counties and other governments may render assistance in accordance with the provisions of mutual aid or intergovernmental support agreements in place at the time of the emergency.
3. The County EMA and/or EOC staff will establish regular communication with state agency offices supporting the incident within the County (Pennsylvania Departments of Agriculture, Transportation, State Police, etc.)
4. Requests for unmet needs will be forwarded to the State EOC (SEOC) and copied to the PEMA Central Area Office.

C. Direction, Control, Coordination and Support

1. County Elected Officials are responsible for the protection of the lives and property of the citizens, and during a disaster emergency declaration they are responsible for ultimate coordination of emergency activities within the county.
2. The County EOC will be used for decision-makers to exercise direction and control of county coordination efforts, to gather information, and to support the activities of the responders during emergency situations.
 - a. The EOC is not normally activated, but will be activated as needed.
3. The Emergency Management Coordinator (EMC) may act on behalf of the County Elected Officials. The County EOC may be activated by the EMC, Deputy EMC, EMC designee, or the elected officials during an emergency.
4. The County EOC uses an ESF organizational structure that complies with the National Incident Management System (NIMS) and National Response Framework (NRF) guidance.
5. The initial Incident Command/Unified Command (IC/UC) at an incident site is usually formed from the service(s) having primary jurisdiction (fire, police, emergency medical services, etc). As an incident progresses, the primary jurisdiction may change.
 - a. The on-site IC will coordinate with the respective municipal emergency management coordinator and/or municipal EOC as much as possible.
 - b. If the county EOC is operational, the applicable EOC staff will coordinate with the applicable municipal EOC staff. If the municipal EOC is not activated or the municipal EMC is unavailable, the IC/UC at the incident site will coordinate directly with the county EOC.

- c. The County EMC and/or designated EOC Manager will NOT assume command of any incident or operations on-scene. The EOC will support the efforts of the on-site IC/UC.

Table 1: Emergency Support Functions

6. Emergency response will be coordinated through the fifteen Emergency Support Functions (ESF) outlined in Table 1. The actual functions of the ESFs are detailed in Volumes II and III of this plan.
7. Within the EOC, as situations require, direct collaboration between ESFs will be conducted.
8. In those cases where an ESF is not staffed, NIMS doctrine dictates that responsibilities and activities of that ESF revert to the County EMC or designated EOC Manager.
9. The County EMC will monitor local events on a daily basis through media outlets, internet sites, the 9-1-1 Center, reports from PEMA, the National Weather Service, or other sources. Based on impending events, the EMC will consider an appropriate activation level of the EOC.
10. Other Emergency Plans may be applicable and provide detail to supplement this plan:
 - a. An incident involving hazardous substances, weapons of mass destruction or a nuclear power plant incident may involve responses prescribed by other (incident specific) plans (SARA Plan, High Hazard Dam Plan, etc.). These plans provide additional information or details, but do not supersede or replace this County EOP.
 - b. If the incident involves implementation of response plans at various levels, the county and state Emergency Management Agencies shall serve to coordinate to the maximum extent practical to ensure effective actions.
11. Integration of Response, Recovery and Mitigation Actions:
 - a. Following a disaster, immediate response operations to save lives, protect property, and meet basic human needs have precedence over recovery and mitigation. Recovery actions will be coordinated and based upon availability of resources.
 - b. Mitigation opportunities will be considered throughout disaster operations.

PHASE	EVENT	SCOPE	EXAMPLES
LEVEL IV	Localized events with relatively minor damages. Increased awareness warranted.	9-1-1 center handles routine dispatches. EMA on call	A few trees down; isolated minor water ponding; small vehicle accidents.
LEVEL III	Threats that require frequent situational updates or planning. Possible county-level response.	County EMA staff reports to the EOC or incident site to monitor needs for county or out-of county resources	Increased flooding over several municipalities; large vehicle accidents; aircraft crashes; hazmat incidents
LEVEL II	Threats that require constant situational awareness, coordination or damage assessment	Partial mobilization of EOC Staff, & ESFs as required.	Municipalities declare disasters; widespread flooding; tornado; snow blizzard. County considers signing a disaster declaration.
LEVEL I	Catastrophic damage involving the entire county or neighboring counties	Full mobilization of EOC Staff with all available ESFs.	(Katrina scale event)

Table 2 – Levels of EOC Activation

12. Activation of the County Emergency Operations Center (EOC):

- a. The EMC or EOC Manager will determine which ESFs are needed in the EOC. The EMC or EOC Manager will contact the required county officials and the ESFs.
- b. Activation of the EOC may be phased in four levels, with Level IV being normal operations, and Level I involving a maximum effort on the part of County EMA and both paid and volunteer staff.
